fine job and makes enough money to take care of us. I happen to hate housework and am bored to tears at home because there's not enough to do, so... I took an office job which I love. I hire a cleaning woman and laundress two days a week which is ample.

My husband feels I should be home when the children come from school. I'm usually in the house by 5:45 but he says teenagers should not be allowed the free run of the place from 3:30 till almost 6:00.

What is your opinion? — MRS. S.
Dear Mrs. S.: If your husband wants you to be at home when the children come from school... be there. Since housework bores you it's fine that you have an office job, but work part-time only. Many husbands do not share his point of view, but since he has strong feelings, respect his wishes.

To learn the difference between a mistress that "settles down" and one that "gets dull," send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "What to Expect from Marriage," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coins and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
